DataBasics distributes SeeFile - Press release January 2008

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Seefile Signs Master Distributor Agreement with DataBasics to Launch Seefile Product Line in Australia, New Zealand and SE Asia

San Francisco, CA, January 29th, 2008 - SeeFile (www.seefile.com), the leading developer of web server software for sharing media files, has announced a master distribution agreement with DataBasics, Pty. Ltd., Australia's leading software distributor of desktop and server workflow solutions, to distribute Seefile's popular SeeFile4 software throughout Australia, New Zealand and SE Asia.

"We have been thrilled with the market's response to our product," said Patrice Gouttebel, channel manager for SeeFile. "We're excited to introduce SeeFile to Australia, New Zealand and SE Asia. DataBasics has great experience in the market and with different product lines similar to Seefile, we are confident that DataBasics is the right choice to continue our expansion."

"SeeFile4 is what many of our users have been demanding of DataBasics" said Ricky Patten Director, DataBasics. "SeeFile4 delivers the functionality that customers want, with a suitable footprint and pricing. I can see our Apple reseller network jumping at the opportunity to deliver this new and innovative way of sharing files between media professionals and their associates."
